Alliance Française-Devon 'loved the performance of Affinitée for our Piaf 100th anniversary celebration on the 19th December 2015. Gilly's velvety voice accompanied by the remarkable accordionist Basil and unique guitarist Tim transported us to France back in the early sixties when Edith Piaf had reached international stardom. We very warmly recommend Affinitée.' And so do those of us who greatly enjoyed their show here a few years ago.

On Thursday April 21st

we will welcome back the zany and highly talented GONZO MOOSE THEATRE COMPANY in their latest anarchic production, the successor to I'm an Aristocrat, Get Me Out of Here,

GREAT SCOTT

which asks 'what if Captain Scott actually perished whilst saving the world from aliens?'

The untold true story - (This is not a true story!)

Hermitage Ensemble

With great excitement we can now announce that this professional ensemble of soloists from St Petersburg will perform a concert of Russian sacred hymns and traditional songs, a capella, in the Parish Church on Tuesday 26th April

Well done all you parents, grandparents, and just possibly great grandparents, who recently brought their young ones in droves to pack the Village Hall for the PuppetCraft presentation of MONKEY! We got the impression that they all loved it, even the one or two who were a mite scared at some of the magical goings-on.

But for 8 year-old Hope it was 'really exciting and slightly freaky; I enjoyed it immensely!' A somewhat younger boy, name unknown, was overheard to say how much he liked 'the lady at the side with all the musical instruments, and the funny voices.' Another was impressed by how hard the trio of puppeteers worked, 'running all round the place, up and down. It must have been hard work.' I'm sure it was, and likewise for the LympEnts team who had set up the hall with seats on the stage and on stepped rostra below, and cleared it away afterwards.
Top marks all round!
