September songs from MICK RYAN & PAUL DOWNES

be among the first to hear new material from this renowned folk duo's latest album

MICK RYAN is well known as the writer of both comic and serious material for the very popular band "Crows" and a series of highly successful folk musicals: 'A Day's Work' ; 'The Navy's Wife' and 'The Pauper's Path' have all been staged in Lympstone. On the new album Mick is joined by Lympstone's very own PAUL DOWNES. His rich musical background has progressed through working with Phil Beer, The Arizona Smoke Revue, Pete Seeger, The Joyce Gang and Maggie Boyle, not to mention performing in nearly every concert venue, theatre and festival in Britain (including two appearances at the Royal Albert Hall with Show of Hands); plus many tours in the USA and Europe.

LOOKING AHEAD

With the welcome reappearance of Mick and Paul on our stage in September the LympEnts autumn season will be off to a flying start. But there will be many more treats to follow later in the year and on into 2017. Here are some dates to put in your diaries right now:

Sunday 30th October (?): Force Five Wind Quintet give a Children's Concert featuring Roald Dahl's tale of The Pot Bellied Pig narrated by Mai Targett

Sunday 4th December: Angel Heart Puppets in FREYA, about a little Viking girl in 'a bit of a pickle.'

Saturday 25th February: THE VILLAGE CONCERT, matinée and evening shows

Friday 17th March: FB POCKET ORCHESTRA play Blues, Ragtime, Hot Jazz, Songs and Dances from long ago in a nostalgic evening full of style and glamour

Saturday 25th March: STEVE KNIGHTLY supported by The Exmouth Shanty Men. Book early for our big-name spring offering

We haven't finished building the programme yet; gaps will be filled and more exciting events announced; among them we are hoping to provide a real treat next May/June time for lovers of chamber music. Look out for more details of all the above in the August DRUMBEAT
